

ADDITIONAL GUIDANCE TO RELIGIOUS ORGANISATIONS FOR PERMITTED ON-SITE ACTIVITIES

It was announced on 21 Apr 2020 that the circuit breaker period will continue until 1 Jun 2020 (inclusive). This advisory provides further guidance to religious organisations (ROs) on the conduct of permitted activities on their premises or places of worship, and is to be read together with MCCY's advisory on 4 Apr 2020.

Application to the Ministry of Trade and Industry for Time-Limited Exemption

2. With the exception of funeral-related services that are already allowed with restrictions¹, ROs must apply to the Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) for a Time-Limited Exemption (TLE) via <https://covid.gobusiness.gov.sg> one day prior to the conduct of all activities on their premises or place of worship. This includes recording/broadcast sessions on-site and the return of staff to workplace premises for urgent and critical tasks that cannot be done remotely. ROs should proceed with the activity only after receiving MTI's acknowledgement, whilst following the prevailing safe distancing requirements. ROs are to inform MCCY of your TLE applications via www.cpro.gov.sg For queries on TLE, please refer to <https://covid.gobusiness.gov.sg>

Full Implementation of Measures

3. The granting of a TLE does not exempt religious ROs from the prevailing COVID-19 advisories by the relevant government agencies. ROs are reminded to fully comply with the prevailing guidelines in MCCY's 4 Apr advisory as well as the Ministry of Trade and Industry's and the Ministry of Manpower's general workplace guidelines. Persons and organisations that do not comply will face penalties under the Infectious Diseases Act² and the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020³. The health of all depends on each one of us.
